Product Description

The King's Ridge playground system is a haven for young adventurers seeking to reign over a forest realm of endless play possibilities. The structure features majestic Leaf Roofs and a captivating Mini Arch Bridge as well as climbers and paths that tempt children to race across them, fostering active play and friendly competition. But the adventure doesn't stop there; cognitive engagement awaits with interactive elements like the Single Drum and nearby Bongos, where merry music compositions come to life through collaboration. For those craving more excitement, dare to cross the Bones Bridge and experience the thrill of cascading down the exhilarating Left Turn Slide. And fear not, for a second Left Turn Slide beckons from the opposite end, ensuring that kids can have more fun and spend less time standing around. The whimsical Store Panel stands ready as a marketplace in waiting, while the upper-level Gear Panel injects a touch of playful futuristic flair into the treetops.

With the King's Ridge playground system, young minds are sure to be captivated and hearts filled wi...
