Product Description

Kids will have a blast climbing to the top and racing down the double slide on the Los Arboles play structure! Ideal for both younger and older children, this playground set features an assortment of fabulous activities, including the nautical sea creature and ocean climbers as well as a pod climber. Children can use these dynamic accessories to reach the different platforms. Thankfully, the play structure boasts a sprawling and safe layout, so children can race one another to the bottom ... and to the top again!

The Los Arboles playground set features an array of interactive items, like a gear panel, rain wheel, and bench panel, making it great for children of varying interests. The rain wheel on the ground level also makes the structure ADA-compliant, offering fun for children of all ability levels. The size and challenge level of the Los Arboles playground structure is best suited for children 2 to 12 years old.

This playground set is great for all kinds of spaces, whether you're looking to add to an existing playground or need an all-in-one solution for a smaller play space. This plastic-and-steel structure is durable enough to withstand years of safe play, making it a great investment. And quick shipping is available for either the neutral or primary color palettes, so you can get your Los Arboles play structure set up and ready for use in no time.
