Product Description

This simplistic piece of equipment can turn any play area into a training ground. Agility Poles (Set of 5) let 5 young athletes work on building their endurance, agility, and foot speed. 5 poles that appear to be sprouting from the ground help them stay physically active. Kids can use these poles for tennis/baseball practice or to prepare for their next track-and-field race. They can set up an obstacle course using Agility Poles (Set of 5) as markers for weaving, dodging, and jumping. Or, they may use these 5 poles to play Tag or Capture the Flag with pals. How about relay races that are centered around these structures that resemble a wizard's staff? Placing these poles horizontally will turn them into balance-challenging beams. Creative young gals will come up with themed training sessions like Ninja Warriors or Superhero Training Montage here. Lads will use Agility Poles to practice Kung Fu around bamboo trees.
