Product Description

Royal Core Combo Station is the perfect outdoor exercise equipment for teenagers. All teens will love this perfect blend of entertainment and wellness enhancement. It's a comprehensive fitness station that withstands unfavorable outdoor conditions. It's made for heavy use and teens can enjoy wide-ranging core exercises on this structure. These exercises can be sit-ups and dips, among other workout routines. The Royal Core Combo Station can help teenagers get those desirable abs while helping them avoid the ills of a sedentary lifestyle. The attached sit-up bench features 2 steel bars. Arranged at different heights, users can adjust these bars as per their fitness level. This way, users can alter the difficulty level of their sit-up routines ("beginner" or "advanced"). Royal Core Combo Station has a pull-up bar and curved steel bars to engage a range of muscle groups. In short, this structure provides ample physical activity in an open environment. Royal Core Combo Station makes fitness fun and motivates teenagers to stay active.
