Product Description

This exceptional equipment turns little kids into amateur ninjas. With its 13 rungs on top and 2 on either side, it's an ideal fitness trainer for future gold medalists. Facilitating deft & quick movements, it improves children's grip strength. They can test the limits of their endurance by holding on tightly to the Straight Overhead Scaling Ladder's rungs. What's amazing is the design of this equipment that allows multiple kids to enjoy this hung ladder simultaneously. A party of kids can organize friendly races or pretend to be explorers lost in an Indiana Jones-style maze. They may treat the space beneath their feet as a treacherous canyon and hold on to the ladder for dear life! The Straight Overhead Scaling Ladder fosters teamwork among kids as well. They can climb in unison and pass objectives to each other. This way, they may end up transforming this equipment into a makeshift Takeshi's Castle.
