

Product Description

The perfect addition to a community space, park or school, the Royal Double Station Leg Press lets users work their various leg muscles like hamstrings and quads in an outdoor environment. The dual aspect seating makes this equipment attractive to couples or friends wishing to complete their workout in close proximity so they can chat together and encourage each other during the workout. Lower body strength will receive a boost with the Royal Double Station Leg Press and it can be used as part of a fitness regime that draws people back to the outdoor gym equipment time after time. Physical education teachers can also include this quality piece of equipment as part of a fitness circuit for pupils when used in a school environment to promote wellness. As it's powder coated it will endure for years in all weathers. There is a helpful information board between the equipment to demonstrate proper form so there are no unwanted injuries from incorrect use.
