

Product Description

The Royal Double Station Chin Up is the perfect piece of outdoor exercise equipment for building upper body strength in the arms, shoulders and back. It's a low impact device with a simple design but it is sure to prove popular with young adults competing on either side of the information board to see who can do the most chin ups. There are often bars in a gym for this kind of exercise, but the Royal Double Station Chin Up lets adults and children be more social and do their exercises outside in all weathers. Whether the user can only do one or two chin ups to begin with or can do fifteen or twenty without breaking a sweat, this outdoor gym structure is a great way to stay fit and guaranteed to improve performance over time when used frequently. The beauty of this fitness station is that it allows users to control their exercises and will deliver a real sense of accomplishment when they hit their personal best.
