Product Description

The simple yet effective design of this Diamond Pattern Traditional Rectangular Bench without Back is available in 4ft, 6ft, 8ft, 10ft or 15ft sizes to suit any environment you choose to place it in. The bench can be secured to the ground in two ways, or you can opt for the portable option if you want to be able to move it around, such as placing it underneath a floating table without seats. A bench like this can be placed in a wide range of locations, from forest trails to give people a place to sit and recover to the side of a lake so people can enjoy the views. What's great about the Diamond Pattern Traditional Rectangular Bench without Back is that it has a lattice pattern so rainwater just falls straight through and doesn't pool on the surface which could damage the metal and make clothes wet when sat on. It comes in a range of fantastic, eye-catching colors too.
