Product Description

Want to have a stylish seating space for guests in your outdoor area? The Octagon Nexus Pedestal Table with Perforated Steel stands strong against weather elements. It ensures long-lasting enjoyment for families with kids year-round. It features a thick square beam at the center, providing the whole structure with sturdy support. So, your table won't lose its balance even during lively gatherings and heated arguments. It has 4 support posts that connect to the seats and offer extra strength to the whole structure. This thoughtful design protects the seats and the entire structure from wear & tear. ADA-accessible models of the Octagon Nexus Pedestal Table with Perforated Steel feature 2 or 3 seats removed. This way, guests of all abilities can feel welcome in your park and become part of the conversations. You can choose from various color options and coating choices. With various mounting options available, you can install it almost anywhere with ease.
